Andrew Brown Named Mr. SA

Senior Andrew Brown was crowned Mr. SA 2010 at the annual competition last Friday night at Saint Albert High School. Other winners were Nate Romano, 1st runner-up and Peoples' Choice; Eric Golwitzer, 2nd runner-up; and Kevin Guinan, Mr. Congeniality.

According to Julie Mooney, faculty sponsor, the event raised $2,400 for the school's Student Council. A portion of the proceeds will be used to sponsor a Compassion International Child and will help fund a scholarship and activities such as the Homecoming dance, Red Ribbon Week, Catholic Schools Week and other community projects.

Contestants were judged by their peers and the school's faculty on their poise, grooming, responses to questions and talent. The Mr. SA competition has been a tradition at the school since 1997. Other contestants this year were: senior Nick Rhodes; juniors Sean Mahoney and Mickey Russell; sophomores George Doll and Patrick Martin.
