

Contact: Jenny Van Soelen
Marketing Director
Phone: (712) 329-9000
vansoelenj@saintalbertschools.org

For Immediate Release

April 6, 2009

Two Saint Albert Teams Headed to DI Global Finals

Two teams from Saint Albert Intermediate School are headed to the Destination Imagination Global Finals in Knoxville, Tenn. on May 20-24. The teams each won first place in the Iowa State Destination Imagination Competition in Ames this weekend for their solutions to the challenges in their divisions.

The fourth grade Duck Squad, with Lynette West as team manager, did Instinct Messaging, and the fifth grade DInamites team, with Ellen Ross as team manager and Lisa Gronstal as co-manager, did ViDIo Lit.

Members of the Duck Squad are Zach Rew, Josh Zuchniak, Jacey Martin, Ellie Helton, Nicole Hilderbrand, Elijah Finn and Trevor Rhedin. Members of DInamites are Max Ross, Dan Rieck, Celine Helton, Grace Wettengel, Blair Heisterkamp, Carol Marar and Rachael Gronstal.

Destination Imagination is an international organization that promotes problem solving, creativity, and teamwork. Destination Imagination teams from all over the world will be competing at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville for Global Finals.