Faurot Joins Saint Albert as Controller

James W. Rouse, president of Saint Albert Catholic Schools, announced that Cathy Faurot has joined Saint Albert as the school's controller. In that capacity, Faurot will direct the accounting and financial affairs of the school system and the Saint Albert Educational Foundation.

Faurot is a licensed certified public accountant. Prior to coming to Saint Albert, Faurot served as a manager for McDermott & Miller P.C. since 2008. She was a manager with Dutton & Associates PC/Monteith, Lacy & Sharkey from 2000-2008, and served in various financial positions at Qwest Communications from 1984-2000.

Faurot is a member of the Nebraska Society of CPAs. She earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration from Creighton University in 1981. She also is a past member of the Saint Albert Educational Foundation Board.

"We are so fortunate to have someone of Cathy's high caliber join our Saint Albert team," Rouse said. "Her professional background will serve us well as we continue to streamline the school's financial processes."

Cathy and her husband, Ken reside in Council Bluffs. They have two daughters, Laura and Mary, who are students at Saint Albert.
